

Our hire service can cover any type of event including corporate functions, live concerts, festivals and the dance industry among others.

As well as supplying the system design and equipment, we also supply a full compliment of crew to facilitate every aspect of your event from sound engineers and technicians through to stage managers, environmental health officers, riggers, roadies and any other crew requirement.

Our forward logistical planning and event operations means we are able to save the client money as we reduce the time needed for setup and tear-down without compromising our code of excellence.

We guarantee to use the very best tools for every event or occasion from our pool of premium brands.
